PB&J FOR CITY UNION MISSION

This week we delivered 215 pounds of peanut butter and jelly to the City Union Mission. This is an initiative of the AWANA club that got stalled out by the pandemic. The AWANA boys and girls had a competition to see who would bring the most and the boys won with 89 pounds. We will reward them when we finally get to have our honors time.

MISSIONARY OF THE QUARTER

FIVE MORE SUNDAYS! The missionaries of the quarter are Cesar and Luz Quiroz, serving with Avant Mission in Spain. They are originally from Ecuador, and they have studied and ministered there, in Mexico, Canada and the USA. They are native Spanish speakers, but Cesar says the people in Spain know they are foreigners! All their children are grown and live in the USA. They are evangelists and church planters, and Luz is highly skilled in counseling ministry and mentoring women. Spain has been hit with the virus, so they, too, are struggling. Let's encourage them with a nice gift.
